Unless I am convinced by the testimony of the Scriptures or by clear reason (for I do not trust either in the pope or in councils alone, since it is well known that they have often erred and contradicted themselves), I am bound by the Scriptures I have quoted and my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and will not recant anything, since it is neither safe nor right to go against conscience. May God help me. Amen.

Martin Luther, Diet of Worms, April 18, 1521

At heart, every religion says: Be a good person, and God will accept you.

But the Bible says:

Justification by grace + sanctification by the Spirit = freedom in faith

Station sheet

Station “Sin & forgiveness”

Read Romans 3:23-26 and sum up in your own words what these verses say to you.

Station “The Bible”

Think of one step you could take yourself so that the Bible and faith in Jesus matter more again in your country.

Station “Freedom in faith”

Where do you feel unfree in your faith (for example through pressure, rules, expectations)?

How can you live out the freedom you have in Christ in practical ways?

Station “Courage to change”

What do you think would need to happen for a new reformation of the church to come about in your country?

Action step

What can you do so that the Bible matters again in your life and in the lives of your friends?
